

InraPorc

InraPorc

InraPorc is a model and software tool to analyze performance and to evaluate different nutritional strategies for growing pigs and sows.

InraPorc has been developed at the INRA-Agrocampus "UMR SENAH" research unit in Saint-Gilles, France (near Rennes). The software is intended to be used by nutritionists or for teaching nutritional principles.

Yes